I. Philosophy and Scope

The determination of residency or domicile is governed by the Frederick Community College Board of Trustees in accordance with Maryland State and Federal law. A student's legal residence is determined at the time they apply to the College. The burden of proof of residency is to be upon the student, and they will be required to certify by signature to the accuracy of the information provided on the College application.

As an open-admission institution, Frederick Community College grants admission to all students regardless of citizenship status.

Students will be considered in-county, out-of-county, or out-of-state for tuition calculation. For the purpose of establishing differential tuition, the following procedure applies to both full and part-time students. (See related Tuition and Fees Policy and Procedures.)

A student's determined residency status will be used in the evaluation process for Selective Admission Programs.
