Please refer to the email or letter sent to you for details on which of the following statuses you must appeal. There may be more than one! If you are unsure, contact the financial aid office.

Financial Aid Suspension: Your grade point average (GPA) and/or completion rate do not meet the required standards for your level of attempted courses. You have the right to appeal your suspension by doing the following:

- 1. Complete this form and attach a typed or legibly written, signed and dated explanation of the following:
a. What extenuating circumstances prevented you from being successful in your academic coursework...
b. Are these circumstances resolved? What steps have you taken to ensure your future success?
2. Attach any documentation that can support your case for extenuating circumstances and plan for success.
3. Submit all of the above to the Financial Aid Office by the deadline on your suspension email. Incomplete appeal packets will be denied.

Maximum Time Frame: You have attempted more credits than financial aid eligibility allows or cannot complete in the maximum timeframe for your program of study. You have the right to appeal for an extension of your eligibility by doing the following:

- 1. Complete this form and attach a typed or legibly written, signed and dated explanation of the following.
a. What program are you pursuing at FCC and why were you unable to complete it within 150% of the time...
b. If your reasons were extenuating, are they resolved? What steps have you taken to ensure that you will be successful...
2. Attach any documentation that can support your case for extenuating circumstances and plan for success.
3. Submit all of the above to the Financial Aid Office by the deadline on your suspension email. Incomplete appeal packets will be denied.

Unusual Enrollment History: The Financial Aid Committee has reviewed your Enrollment History Verification Form and has determined that you cannot be granted financial aid eligibility. You have the right to appeal by doing the following:

- 1. Complete 6 credits at FCC at your own expense (this is a requirement set by the Department of Education).
2. After step 1 is documented on your FCC transcript, complete this form and attach a typed or legibly written, signed and dated explanation of why you enrolled in multiple schools...
3. Submit all of the above to the Financial Aid Office. Incomplete appeal packets will not be reviewed.

  - b. Maximum time frame
  - c. Unusual enrollment history

Read and initial next to each statement listed below:

Initials	Terms of Agreement
	My appeal will be reviewed by a committee, and I will be notified of the decision to approve or deny my appeal via FCC student email. (Generally 2-3 weeks after submission of appeal)
	If my appeal is approved, I may be required to complete an "Individual College Academic Plan" (ICAP) with an academic advisor or I may be placed on a 1 semester probation. Failure to honor my plan or to meet the SAP requirements after my probation semester will result in the suspension of my financial aid.
	I understand that submission of an appeal is no guarantee that it will be granted, and that I am responsible for making payments for my classes or dropping classes prior to the refund period.
	I understand that if I stay in classes beyond the date to withdraw for a refund, I will be responsible for charges on my account should my appeal be denied or I fail to submit requested paperwork to complete my financial aid file.
	Per Federal regulations, my appeal must prove (with statement and documentation) that I had extenuating circumstances that prevented me from being successful. If my appeal only indicates I have made choices that led to my suspension, my appeal will be denied.
	Financial Aid will only cover courses that are required for my degree/certificate at FCC. If I am only taking classes needed to transfer that are not required for my program at FCC, my appeal will be denied.
