

Frederick Community College

THE WRITING CENTER

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Students will be able to:

1. Students will actively examine and develop specific skills necessary for successful completion of course writing assignments.
2. Students will demonstrate increased understanding of concepts necessary for successful completion of their writing assignments.
3. Students will become self-directed learners.