enter any famous tiktok performer s name into our tiktok influencer engagement and earnings calculator you will see they have the potential to earn a healthy income from their tiktok activities indeed if you enter your own username you might be surprised by what you could gain sure you don t make your money directly from tiktok itself but many famous tiktok stars make a living through influencer marketing forbes has calculated that addison rae made 5 million from her tiktok earnings last year obviously the higher your engagement rate the more successful brands will consider you and the higher they will be willing to pay it is difficult to find overall engagement rates for tiktok all the published ones appear to wrongly equate engagement with the percentage of people opening the app once a day however like most social media networks you can calculate your individual tiktok engagement with the following formula number of hearts number of comments number of followers x100 you can calculate this either for a single post or overall we suggest that you add together the figures for your last 20 posts when you make this calculation overall the easiest way to determine how much you could potentially earn from tiktok is to enter your username in our tiktok influencer engagement and earnings calculator which you will find near the top of this post we developed this tool to provide potential earning guidelines to influencers ultimately a brand and an influencer negotiate what they consider to be fair value we stress that this is only an estimation and can vary greatly by niche country audience location and audience brand affinity
