Continuity of Teaching and Learning: (Evolving List) of Super Users

Faculty Colleagues,

We are working diligently to provide you with the support you need to transition your credit courses online and/or into alternative formats. In addition to the assistance, training, and resources that Online Learning and Instructional Innovation is providing, CTL and Academic Departments are creating an evolving list of Super Users. These Super Users have volunteered to assist you with the transition of your courses. We are grateful for their selflessness and support.
